Description:	mpd (http://www.musicpd.org/) does a marvellous job serving the music catalog (as well as playing it), especially when used with iOS clients MPoD and MPaD. It would be great if mpd could be included in 8.0, and in the forthcoming releases. I tried installing mpd from the arch -repositories, but LinHES libraries are too old for the present mpd. I don't dare to update the (ffmpeg?) libs...

package was added to -testing and will be in 8.1.

runit-scripts was also updated with a mpd file add_service.sh mpd configuration file is unmodified and will need to be setup for a LinHES system.

Patches are welcome if someone wants to make the config changes to match a linhes layout
